

December 22

One of my favorite things to do with a quilt border is to make it a tool to change a quilt center from a square to a more interesting shape. In this example the quilt center will appear within an almost flower shaped border.

©adventurousquilter.blogspot.com Marianne Jeffrey

Blocks used: December 4, 8, 8b, 9, 9b, blank squares of background fabric A

Note: the coloring of some blocks differs from the original coloring in the quilt center.